

Talk about Tobacco!

Parents play a really important role in influencing their children's opinions about tobacco. Talk with them about your feelings toward tobacco use including the risks and consequences. Give them time to talk about their feelings and what they would say or do if offered tobacco. Take it outside! Keep your home and car smoke-free to protect their health and yours.

