

Do active acts of kindness!

Show your children how simple gestures can make the world a better place. It can be as simple as clearing a sidewalk or a driveway for an elderly neighbour or walking someone's dog. You will all feel good knowing that your efforts have made a difference.

