

Take a break with your kid

Start a conversation. Once your child settles in from school ask about their day. What was the best part and hardest part? Did anything bother them? Talk about any difficult situations and how to handle them. Encourage them to talk to you any time.

Parenting isn't always easy. Stay positive!

